

R. ALEXANDER ACOSTA,
SECRETARY OF LABOR,
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRISTIAN HOME HEALTHCARE
CORP. and INDIA CHRISTIAN,

Defendants.

)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)
)

Civil Action No. No. 18-cv-01194

Magistrate Judge Robert C. Mitchell

AND NOW, this ____ day of _____, 2019, upon review of Defendants' Motion to Compel and Memorandum in Support, and in light of the Court's review and approval of Defendants' Proposed Order Providing for Confidential Treatment of Documents, Testimony, and Information ("Confidentiality Order"), it is ORDERED that Defendants' Motion to Compel is GRANTED. Within 20 days of the date of this Order, Plaintiff shall provide to Defendants:

- 1 This Order incorporates the definitions used in Defendants' First Set of Requests for Production of Documents.

- C. Full and complete responses, based on the information presently known to Plaintiff, to Interrogatory Nos. 1, 2, and 3. If new information is learned during discovery, then Plaintiff may supplement its response to these interrogatories within 15 days of the close of discovery.

Plaintiff shall add any document falling within the scope of this Order that Plaintiff specifically contends is protected by the attorney-client privilege to its privilege log in accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(5) so that Defendants can evaluate the appropriateness of Plaintiff's designation.

_____.J.
Magistrate Judge Robert C. Mitchell

TADMS:5135262-1 028355-182094